ADVENTISTS IN JAIL

CONVICTED OF WORKING ON THE SABBATH DAY.

Made No Defense.

The trial of a number of Seventh Day Adventists, residents of Graysville, Rhea county, Tennessee, was brought to a close in the circuit court at Chattanooga after occupying the attention of the court for three days. That soft newspaper is excellent to A number of defendants were charged with following their usual vocations That cold tea cleanses paint better on the Sabbath day and the majority of them were found guilty. Attorney General J. A. Fletcher left no stone as the charges were proved and no detrouble in securing conviction. The the polls. offenses charged were trivial in character and were committed in the county, five miles from the town of smooth by rubbing it when warm over Dayton, but as the public roads were, in the majority or cases, near the defendants' residences, the clause "in a public place," or "within a certain place," or "within a certain distance of a public road" was inserted. The offense was proved to be "hurtful to the morals of the community."

The defendants, without exception, are honest, industrious, respectable citizens, having the confidence of the better element in the community. The prosecutor in the first instance was a laborer without any social standing and without means. The accused were H. C. Leach, accused of cutting underbrush on his farm; W. L. Burchard, charged with cutting wood; N. B. England, same offense; Lewis Abbott, a merchant, charged with selling goods on Sunday; Allen Cathey, a mere boy who works in the mines all the week and is the support of a widowed mother and aunt, charged with cutting stove wood for his mother's use Dwight Plumb, charged with a similar offense; W. T. Kerr, charged with building a fence, and plowing; Monroe Morgan, shingling a house.

Elder Gillett, a deacon of the Adventist church, held in high esteem by charges against him, but the witnesses continued. Several other cases were also held over to the next court. Judge Parks, in passing sentence, said: "I will take the occasion, however, to express my sincere personal regret that a necessity exists for inflicting punishment on these people, for it must be patent even to the most casual observer, that they are good citizens, who are thoroughly conscientious in the course they have taken. They are not Sabbath breakers in the ordinary sense of that term. The original intention of the law was certainly not to punish such people. It was directed at that class of people who, out of sheer wickendess and want of decent respect for things sacred, violate that day which by concurrent belief of the Christian world in general had come to be recognized as the Sabbath."

The court then imposed small fines the heaviest being $850. The defend ants said that if they paid the fines they would be putting the law of man before the law of God, so they would suffer for conscience's sake. They emphatically refused to pay the fines and were removed to the jail, which adjoins the courthouse, without any excitement.

GLOVE CONTESTS UNLAWFUL. Comptroller Fluley on the Corbett-

Fitzsimmons Fight. State Comptroller Finley, of Texas, gave the projectors of the Corbett-Fitz simmons contest, of Dallas, a setback in a letter to the tax collector of Dallas. He says: "After careful examination and consideration of the ques tion presented, I have reached the conclusion that, while the act of 1889 provided for an occupation tax of $500 for every fight between man and man, the legislature of this state has, by a subsequent enactment, made it unlawful for any person to voluntarily engage in a pugilistic encounter for money; that the effect of said act was to repeal so much of the act of 1889 as permitted an occupation tax to be charged for fights between man and man, has been so decided by our courts of criminal appeals. You are, therefore, respectfully advised that this department will not attempt to legalize the proposed pugilistic encounter in this state by issuance of license therefor, or by authorizing you, as tax collector of Dallas county, to receive any sum of money from any person as license tax for such performance when the same is manifestly unlawful and has been so expressly declared by the people of Texas through their legislature."

They Will Fight.

CROPS ARE BOOMING.

Good News Received From Every Section of the State.

The weekly crop bulletin of the weather bureau shows that the crops of the state are in splendid condition, an indication that the farmers of the state will be prosperous this year.

From every portion of the state comes the statement that the crops are rapidly growing and that there will be more than an average yield.

Generous showers have fallen in all sections of the state since last report; the temperature has been normal or slightly above. Crops are all in flourishing shape, and though cotton has not yet entirely recovered from its backward condition, it is clear of grass, weeds and lice, has green, healthy color, and with ordinarily seasonable weather, will yield up to or above the average. All other crops are in good condition.

The Master Workman Makes Protest

Several hundred members of the local Knights of Labor of Washington were addressed by Master Workman Sovereign at a meeting held to protest against the imprisonment of Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway Union and manager of the great Chicago strike last year. Mr. Sovereign denounced the confinement of Debs as an unlawful act of the courts. He exhorted the workingmen to band together for mutual protection, and announced that he had issued an order to the Knights of Labor of the United States to set apart Labor Day (the first Monday in Septamber), as a time to make a mammoth protest against Mr. Debs' incarceration. Several other speakers followed unturned to convict the accused, and Mr. Sovereign. It was the opinion of the majority of them that the only fense whatever made, he had little successful way to make a strike was at

At the conclusion of the speechmaking a resolution was adopted demanding of congress legislation which shall give legal protection to organized employes of corporations and secure them in the future from the arbitrary and unjust application of an injunction under a gross and willful misconstruction of the law. The resolution also demanded that the status of labor organizations shall be legally declared and the duty of the judiciary in all matters at issue between the employer and employe fully defined.

FITZSIMMONS ACQUITTED.

The Verdict Received With Tremendous Cheering.

Bob Fitzsimmons, the well-known ougilist, who was on trial for a week at Syracuse, N. Y., on the charge of being responsible for the death of his late sparring partner, Con Riordan, is free, the jury aunouncing the verdict as "not guilty."

Immediately a tremendous cheer went up. Such a boisterous demonstration has not been seen in the Onondaga county courthouse in many years. County Judge Ross pounded with his gavel in vain for order, and finally commanded the sheriff and his deputies to put everybody under arrest. This had the effect of quieting the crowd, and inasmuch as the order was not carried out, everybody went away happy. The summing up of Attorney Frederick House, for the defense, was an eloquent effort, and it took the jury but a short time to arrive at the verdict of acquittal.

ASPHYXIATED HIS FAMILY.

How an Illinois Man Murdered His Wife and Children.

Frederick Hellman, a Chicago maon contractor, 36 years old, murdered his wife and four children by asphyxiation, and died with them. The victims were: Ida Hellman, 34 years old; Fritz Hellman, 12 years old; Ida Hellman, 11 years old; Willie Hellman, 8 years old, and Hedwig Hellman, 4 years

The gas was turned on after the family, excepting the husband, had gone to sleep, and none regained consciousness. The body of Hellman showed evidence of a struggle. He first shut the door and windows, then turned on the gas and lay down to die with his family. He left a note for his brother, in which he gave instructions regarding the disposition of his property. He said that he would not be living when the note was received, but said in it nothing of the premeditated death of the rest of the family.

Throat Paralysis.

(From the Courier-Herald, Saginaw, Mich.) It was publicly talked all over Clare County, Michigan, for some time before the Courter-Herald sent & reporter to Dover to fully investigate the Coulter matter, Ho flually went, and we publish to-day his full report. The Coulters are prominent people, though Mrs. C. in response to the question whether she objected to being interviewed, said, "Certainly not." Her story follows:

"About 14 years ago we decided to take up our abode in Dover and everything went along smoothly for several years, business progressed, and being of a saving temperament we accumulated quite an amount. Our family increased as the years rolled by and we now have 5 children living, the oldest 15, youngest 3, but slekness made its way into our household, and doctors' bills flooded upon us, until we have nothing left but our home and these sweet children. Everything went to satisfy the claims of physicians. "About three years ago I had a miserable feeling at the back of my ears, my right hand became paralyzed and the paralysis extended to my arm and throat, and would affect my head and eyes, sometimes for days I would lose my sight, my face was deformed. lifeless as it were, my nose was drawn to one side, and I presented a pitiable appearance never expecting to regain my natural facial expressions. I employed the best physicians that could be procured, expending thousands of dollars for their services, but case was beyond the reach of medical skill and it would be but a short time until the end would come. This certainly was not very encouraging to me, but I never gave up hope. In connection with receiving the at-tendance of physicians I have tried every medicine known to the apothecary but never received any relief until Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People came to my assistance. Before I had taken half of the first box the deformity in my face had left me, and before four boxes had been consumed the paralysis had disappeared intirely, and much to my turprise I felt like a new woman. I have not taken any medicine since last spring, just about a year ago and my trouble had just about a year ago, and my trouble has not appeared since. I owe my health, my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. "A short time since my little boy John was afflicted with St. Vitus' dance. He could not walk across the room without assistance, in fact he would fall all over him-self, but after taking a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, St. Vitus' dance entrely loft him, and no trace of the affliction is left. These Pills are worth their weight in You may say in this connection that I am willing at any time to make affidavit to the truth of these statements, and furthermore, I will answer any communication con-cerning my case, as I consider it nothing more than right and just that I should assist

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

DONALD KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, MASS. Has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred: cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor). He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston. Send postal card for book. A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the right quantity is taken.

When the lungs are affected it causes shooting pains, like needles passing through them; the same with the Liver or Bowels. This is caused by the ducts being stopped, and always disappears in a week after taking it. Read the label. If the stomach is foul or bilious it will
